

Preface: : An Informal Introduction to the Library for International Students

Jeannie Bail, Ryan Lewis
October 5, 2011

Preface:

The introduction to a literary work, usually stating its subject, purpose, scope, method, etc.; (in modern use also) spec. an introductory note, often of a personal nature, written by the author and distinguished from a foreword and an introduction.

OED, Third edition, March 2007; online version September 2011. <<http://www.oed.com/view/Entry/149969>>; accessed 05 October 2011.

What we plan to explore with you...

- What types of services are offered at the QEII Library
- Where you can find them
- The best tools to start your research
- How to use them
- Questions?
- Tour of the library

Research services available at the QEII

Research

- Librarians to help you
- Books (print and electronic)
- Databases for finding journal articles, and more
- The Periodicals Desk, for assistance finding back issues of publications/microforms
- The Map/GIS Room
- Centre for Newfoundland Studies
- Archives and Special Collections
- Digital Archives Initiative
- Document Delivery

Technology services at the QEII

Technology

- The Commons
 - Set up a LabNet account
 - Get wireless access
 - Computers/printers/copiers for personal use
 - One-on-one tutoring for programs like Excel and Word
 - The Digital Media Centre for printing photos, and more
 - The Writing Centre

How to find things at the QEII

- Ask a librarian!
- Consult the floor plan (handout available at the Information Desk)
- Listen to an audio tour
- Use the Classic Catalogue to search for books and periodical titles
- Explore a Topic guides to help with subject-specific research
- Consult the Help and How To section of the Library website

The best online tools to start your research

Journal/Scholarly Articles > Article Search

Books > Classic Catalogue

Reserves > Reserves Desk

Newspaper or magazine articles (popular periodicals) > Factiva or LexisNexis

The best online tools to start your research

Newfoundland and Labrador >

Newfoundland and Labrador Collections

Archives & Special Collections > DAI

Reference tools, like dictionaries and encyclopedias > More Collections > Quick Reference Online

Citation help > APA, MLA...guides

Resources

- Library Jargon Translator
- MUN Libraries FAQ
- The Commons: Welcome Brochure in 4 Different Languages
- Association for New Canadians- NL

Questions??

REMEMBER:

We are here to help YOU!!

